

HOW TO ENTER THE SANCTUM

LIVE — ts-creative.vercel.app

#	THE RITUAL	WHAT YOU'LL SEE
01	READ THE BLOG	You land on SIGNAL & STATIC — a shortwave blog abandoned in 2013. The post the hum at 0528 casually teaches the frequency.
02	OPEN PHOTOS	Six frames. One impossible: a glowing ring in a dead observatory, captioned IMG_0528 — DO NOT.
03	CLICK THE RING ×3	Static flickers, the ring brightens, a whisper detunes. On the third click the page tears — THE DOOR ASKS.
04	TYPE 0528	A static wipe. The Seal bootloader runs. First visit only: the network asks what to call you.
05	SCROLL THE GATE	The transmission resolves — then the way to the Trials opens. Every later visit greets you by name.

SHORT ON TIME?

· During the Seal: ↑ ↑ ↓ ↓ lifts it instantly. · ~ snaps back to the blog any second. · The rite facing you is the one that tests you — tap it. · The full path is ~10 minutes; every chamber can be replayed.

KEYS, IN ONE GLANCE

Esc — Field Log · 1-5 — log tabs
~ — panic to the surface · ↑↑↓↓ — seal skip Ctrl+Alt+D — forget me entirely · wheel/drag — orbit

WHAT TO JUDGE

The cover is the concept — judge the blog as a website before the door ever opens. · Sixteen playable systems — five signal rounds + an endless master band, five focus waves with a lying decoy, three dilemmas whose verdicts become six proof games. · The meta-layer — nineteen quests, a persistent dossier, a Ceremony that mints your rank, callsign and sigil from your own play, a Departure that walks you out. · The craft — decode-reveal typography, an inertia physics orbit, gesture-armed sound, keyboard-first everything.

"Everything past the door is deliberately undocumented — judge by wandering."
